

CSH PTG meeting minutes

Tuesday, March 12, 2024

- Meeting started and the February minutes were approved.
- Jennifer Cahn gave a welcome message and discussed the success of Sports Night and how we raised money for Corey's Promise.
- There is one spot open on the Central Parent Council for a Junior, Senior High parent. There will also be two spots open on the Board of Education.
- Some important dates to remember - the next Board of Ed meeting will take place on March 12th at 8 PM. The next CPC meeting will be on Thursday, March 14 at 9 AM. The next PTG meeting will be Tuesday, April 9 at 9:30 AM and the Board of Ed candidate petitions are due on Monday, April 22 by 5 PM.
- Deserie Saunders updates the group on the Literacy Luncheon which is coming up on Thursday, March 21 and will take place at the Crescent Club. Tickets are still on sale along with any donations members want to make for the wine wall, which will be at the event.
- Deserie asks for volunteers for the breakfast at the Senior Yearbook signing, which will take place the first week of June. This is where graduates invite teachers from the past to have breakfast for them at CSHHS.
- Thank you to Molly Levy and Linda Gerber for displaying the Valentines decorations around the school.
- Deserie is asking for volunteers for the Staff Appreciation Luncheon, which will take place on Wednesday, May 1.
- Mr. Natale, Model UN Advisor, introduces four of the officers from the Model UN club. The officers that presented were Tanishka Dhariwal, Amber Zhou, Zabelle Bobelian, and Hannah Stark.
- Mr. Natale gives us a brief introduction of what the United Nations is and how it is run. He also discusses how the MUN has drastically grown over the years in our school. Students are given the opportunity to become delegates to nations and they attend some of the top five conferences in the country for MUN.
- Mr. Natale has the officers speak about what they do at the conference in January.
- The officers presented about what Model UN does year-round. This includes focus on leadership and training to improve public speaking, negotiation, and various diplomatic issues.
- They also discussed how Model UN fosters important skills in the participating students. This includes, but not limited to, their knowledge of current international events, their ability to make well researched arguments and help with their case defense/argument skills.
- They explained what occurs at the annual January conference, and their personal experiences from attending.

- The club meets every Tuesday after school until about 3:15 -3:30 PM.
- To conclude their presentation, they showed a slideshow from the conference.
- Mr. Danbusky congratulates the Girls Varsity Basketball Team on their success this season, and their excellent sportsmanship.
- Spring sports are underway and the new field turf is done for the students to use.
- Mr. Danbusky announces that they are getting the AP review sessions ready to add to the calendars for sign ups.
- On March 19 at 7 PM the FOCUS and SEPTA group is presenting Jeremy Thode. He is part of Jonah's Mission, which raises awareness for mental health. Mr. Danbusky encourages all to attend with your students of any age.
- International Night is also coming up on March 14. Please come down and enjoy the food and entertainment at this yearly successful event.
- Spring Apparel Sale is on and March 17 is the last day to order.
- Ms. Gierasch discusses the next Board of Education meeting agenda, which includes the budget and a list of considerations for the BOE to review.
